

Russian Offensive Completely Halted At Stoched River

"Worst of Drive is Over" Declared High
German Officer on Eastern Front
Teuton Lines Reorganized

SCOUTS REPORT THE RUSSIANS MASSING

By Carl W. Ackerman

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Headquarters of Field Marshall of Von Hindenburg's army.—"The worst of the Russian offensive is over," one of the highest commanding officers on the eastern front told the United Press today, after a tour of inspection of the Austrian lines. Completely halted at the Stoched river in their efforts to reach Kovel, the Russians, undunted by this failure, have shifted their attack southward, always striking against the Austrians.

"The temporary successes of the Russians in the southeast is desperate strategy," said a German officer, "because the faster they advance with their left wing in the southeast, the more that weakens their right wing along the Stoched." It is admitted here that the Russians caught the Austrians by surprise at the beginning of the offensive. Aeroplanes reported that the Russians were massing
behind the Russian front but no one believed that they were as strong as they have been discovered to be.
The Russians kept the Austrians guessing for several weeks, but now the whole Austro-German front is reorganized and the earlier Russian advances are being overcome.

The fall of Stanislaw and Gowitz
was admittedly unpleasant, but viewed strategically, has a different meaning according to German military men. These reverses are completely outweighed by the Russians failure to reach Kovel and Lemberg. The Germans marvel that they did not succeed in view of the gigantic English and French blows, but at the critical moment the German troops arrived and stiffened the lines west of Kovel.
"We bivouacked last night near the front where the Russians on August 8th attempted their great offensive.
The night scene at the front was entrancing. The sky was lit with countless great fires, about which the companies were encamped within a few hundred yards of the Russian positions. Bands played and soldiers sang. Not a cannon was fired. The Russians occasionally shot light cartridges to illuminate the field between the trenches and prevent a surprise attack. Far off in the distance an Austrian battery was pounding a Russian railroad." The new armies

on this front are composed of Poles, Germans, Austro-Hungarians, and the officers and leaders show a new spirit of comradeship, in their endeavor to strengthen the central powers.

Later advices from Petrograd state that despite stubborn enemy resistance the Russians advanced their lines on a 75 mile front, extending from the Carpathians to a point southwest of Tanopol in yesterday's fighting, occupying two villages.
Another Russian force crossed the Zlota Lipa river, and other Russian troops advanced their lines further in the direction of Halitz.

General Lull on the Front
Official statements from the allied capitals today indicate that there is a general lull along the line of the major offensive, instead of the usual early statements and territorial gains and losses. The Russian war office has given out the figures of the result of the campaign from June 4th to August 13th. This shows
Austro-German prisoners taken 358,- 000, cannon 405, machine guns 1225
and most other booty.

Minor engagements between British and German forces in the Pozieres region, and repulsing of German attacks in the west Verdun front, were reported. The night was very quiet.
The Italians captured Austrian trenches south of Gowitz, and at San Marco 350 prisoners were taken, it was officially announced.

600 TRAINMEN WILL MEET THE PRESIDENT AT CAPITOL TODAY

Propose That Railroads Give 8-Hour Day a Trial Period
-Wilson's Proposal Submitted This P. M.

OVERTIME AT PRESENT RATE

New York, August 16.—Six hundred representatives of the trainmen threatening to strike for the demands of an 8 hour day and time and a half for over-time, will go to Washington
this afternoon to meet President Wilson. W. S. Carter President of the Brotherhood of Firemen, who came to New York from Washington last night to submit the President's proposal to the employees, made this announcement today, following a short conference with some of the leaders.

The proposal submitted by Carter was that the railroads would adopt the 8 hour rule for a trial period, but continue the present schedule of pro-rata pay for over time. The 600 representatives of the 400,000 employees and the district chairmen of the brother-hoods have in their hands the final decision of acceptance or rejection of the proposals looking to the averting of a strike. Immediately after announcing that the chairmen would go to Washington, Carter went into conference with them at Webster Hall.

The 600 representatives of the trainmen formally voted in favor of going to Washington to confer with the President. No other action was taken.

DETROIT—POLITICAL BATTLE- GROUND OF THE NATION

Detroit, Aug. 16.—(By United Press)—Detroit—political battleground of the nation! Such it is today. For the first time in its history the issues of a great campaign are being fought out by the leaders in this city of the middle west.

Roosevelt started the tide of battle Detroitward when he came here to preach preparedness.

President Wilson selected the City of the Straights for his most important address of the pre-campaign period.

Charles Evans Hughes launched his campaign for the Presidency here August 7.

Ash Michigan politicians why and the answer almost invariably is:
"Ford."

Roosevelt came to fight the antimilitaristic movement that crystallized
following Henry Ford's unexpected appearance in the results of the presidential primaries.

Wilson picked Detroit as the place
for his address on Mexican relations.
Politicians believe he picked Detroit
because he recognized it as a representative industrial center.

Then came Hughes, selecting Detroit as the scene of his first offensive move in the actual campaign. The motive of the Republican nominee in picking the automobile city was practical politics. Michigan was the first state in the union to declare definitely for the ex-justice.

A battle royal for Michigan's immense Progressive vote also is indicated by the actions of the two nominees. Normally Michigan is Republican by 50,000 but four years ago Progressives received the popular verdict, polling more than 213,000 votes,
or nearly 39 per cent of the total.

The fight for control of this Progressive element promises to develop into one of the feature rounds of the campaign.

EUROPEAN WAR CAUSE OF KILLING AND SUICIDE

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 16.—(By United Press)—Prejudices arising from the European war were responsible for a double killing and suicide here this afternoon, when Peter Alpakis, of Woodlawn, shot James Astolou, 22, and Mrs. Aemilia Fremiadis, 19, and then committed suicide. The two men were cousins. Alpakis, whose sympathies were with the allies, killed Asto-lou and the young man to prevent them from wedding. Mrs. Fremiadis was the widow of a Turkish soldier, who was killed in the war.

Pomona Grange Meeting at Faudice Hall, Luthersburg, Well Attended

After a short business session, W.
P. Wingert opened the question of Legumes adapted to Clearfield county.
Mr. Wingert was followed by A.
T. Kearney, County Farm Agent, G.
B. Wachob and others who recommended alfalfa and other clovers. The value of drainage was also discussed.

The value of the County Farm Bureau was discussed by T. L. Day, A.
T. Kearney and others.

A bountiful feast was partaken of by all present at the noon hour. The Garner women are surely some-cooks.

Afternoon

A part of the afternoon session was an open meeting in which the question of the "Educational Value of the County Fair" was discussed by S. G.
Koenitz, George Wingert, E. C. Harmon, S. E. Kriner, James Rowles, lecturer; F. Burton Lee, master, and others. T. L. Wall gave an outline of the preparation already made for the fair at Clearfield in order that the members of the Grange and others present might have some idea of a probable value in an educational and recreational way. Mistakes may be made in the organization, management or premium list items, but an earnest effort will be made to rectify any errors in this year's work, next year.

In the premium list a few items are in by mistake (on account of mis-prints of lists of other fairs) that should have been left out. Also, envelopes and quilts as follows were omitted in making up the list:

Five yards or more rug, carpet,
wool chain, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; 5 yards or more rug, carpet, cotton chain, first prize $1.00;
second prize 75 cents; Patchwork
quilts, silk or satin, first prize $1.00;
second prize 50 cents; Patchwork
quilts, wool, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents. Quilted, any design,
first prize $1.00; second prize 50
cents; Silk, any design, first prize
$1.00; second prize 50 cents. 8-4 or Applique work, first prize $1.00;
second prize 50 cents; Log Cabin,
first prize $1.00; second prize 50
cents; Crazy Delaine, first prize $1;
second prize 50 cents; Fancy Delaine,
first prize $1.00; second prize 50
cents; Irish Chain, first prize $1.00;
second prize 50 cents; Double Irish Chain, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; Knitted Bedspread, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents.

An allowance to help defray expenses of bringing stock here has been made as follows: Horses, 10 to 15 miles, $1.50 each; over 15 miles $2.00 each. Cows one half horse rate. Calves, 1 to 5 miles, $1.00 each; 5 to 10 miles, $1.50 each; 10 to 15 miles, $2.00 each; over 15 miles, $3.00 each. Goats one half of cattle rate. Sheep within ten miles, 25 cents each; over 10 miles, 50 cents each. Hens same rate as sheep and pigs 10 cents each. On chickens, return charges will be allowed on exhibition coops. Entries of live stock to secure allowance, must have the number of miles marked on entry blanks.

Friendship Cemented Among Towns of Co. By The Business Men

A Most Cordial Reception Awaits The Tourists at Every Stop And The Accommodations Are Fine

WOMEN OF WOODLAND SERVE LUNCH

One hundred business men of Clearfield, not one more, not one less, took in the first Get Acquainted Tour of the Chamber of Commerce for this year. The greatest weather that ever smiled on humanity was with the tourists and the trip was made without mishap or cross-cross of any kind. So far as we have been able to find out there was not even a puncture even though there were twenty two autos in line. They got away about 7:45
a. m. and maintained the pre-arranged schedule all day arriving at Snow Shoe in time for the noon day meal
that had been ordered in advance.

The tourists were greeted at Snow-ville by a nice crowd which put extra life into the crowd and indicated that they were going to have a great day.
At this point we might say that the band played at every stop and this feature was very much enjoyed by the tourists as well as those they were visiting.

Leontes Mills, the new farming and mining center, provided a good crowd and a great many people came up from the mines to look over the tourists and greet them.

The tourists had the good fortune to reach Frenchville just as the people were coming from a church service at the Catholic church. This insured a good crowd but these people have been one anyhow as Frenchville
always had a warm spot for Clearfield and the feeling is fully reciprocated.

One Glen and Clarence each gave a cordial welcome to the visitors and the tourists were surprised at the excellent appearance of these little towns.

Snow Shoe was reached on time and can well be said to be the objective point of the tourists as they were all hungry and word was passed that an order denoting "eats" was permitting
the atmosphere round about the town.
Their appetites could not have been too large for the landlady at Snow Shoe proved themselves equal to the occasion and had a feast of food prepared for the tourists. The way to enter a man's heart is through his stomach so Snow Shoe will ever be held dear in the hearts of the one hundred odd men who ate there yesterday. This story would not be complete without giving credit to the two period landlady, Lawrence Redding and Samuel Hopburn, who gave them such a dinner.

A matter of no little comment all along the trip was the scenery of the country passed through. Wonderful and beautiful farming lands, mineral laden mountains and forest wealth greeted the tourists in every turn.
Those who had not been over the route before were amazed at the wonders of their own native country.

The tourists stopped at Moslem
and there the Fifth Regiment band made all merry with a lively little tune and after greeting the principal citizens of the village they proceeded to Grass Flat where graciously the White Togo was out to do them honor.
Grass Flat showed her friendship in a practical way by turning out in a body to meet her neighbors and her friends. Grass Flat is another community where a Clearfielder can be where he is hungry for they care will forget him there.

A citizen and merchant of Kylestown had a side batch of delicious apple ready for the tourists and some of them thought a much of the good that they failed to get at well acquainted as they should have been and had to come home with empty pockets well as they were so well taken care of.

More than twenty men have there a most cordial reception and will be in the city at the time of the tourists' coming, and no county fair
can be so successful as this one.

The Chamber of Commerce of Commonwealth has the Get Acquainted tour and it is a fact that the Chamber of Commerce of Clearfield has a very busy day and will be
in the city at the time of the tourists' coming, and no county fair
can be so successful as this one.

Amateur Athletic Club To Stage Six Bouts

Will be Exhibited in Third Ward Hose
House—Money for Firemen

A special attraction of the first day of the Firemen's Convention to be held here on August 22-24 will be the staging of six big bouts of wrestling and boxing by the Amateur Athletic club of Clearfield under the auspices of the Third Ward Hose Company. The bouts will be staged in the Third Ward Hose house on the evening of August 23 at 8:30 o'clock, admission of which will be fifty cents. The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the firemen.

This is the first time in several years that amateur wrestling and boxing matches have been presented by Clearfield boys and it is expected that all local sportsmen will be there to witness the bouts. There will be three bouts of wrestling and three of boxing by local boys. The Amateur Athletic club has a gymnasium in the Edwards and David Billard Parlor where the members have been practicing for this exhibition for several months. As the money goes to the firemen it is hoped a large crowd will be present.

ROBBERS KILL MERCHANT WHEN HE DISCOVERS THEM

Greenville, Pa., Aug. 16.—(By United Press)—J. A. Silverson, proprietor of a general store at Amasa, three miles east of this place was shot and instantly killed in his store
early today by two men whom he caught robbing the place. He lived only long enough to tell of the attack.
He was awakened about one o'clock
by a noise down in the store, and a revolver he crept silently down the stairs. On firing, the bullet lodged in a counter, and he instently became a target for the burglars.
Several shots entered his body, and shortly after others in the household reached him he died.

Mid-Week Dances Held at Country Club

Guelichs Two Piece Orchestra Furnishes the Music

The first of a series of mid-week dances was given last evening at the Clearfield-Curwensville Country club
at which about thirty members were present. These dances will be held every Tuesday evening until the end of the season. Season tickets can be secured from G. Webb Shillingford and Samuel Stewart who are promoting the dances. Guelichs two piece orchestra furnished excellent music.

DELIGHTFUL SHOWER HELD FOR TWO FALL BRIDES

Misses Maud and Florence Graham gave a joint shower last evening at their home on West Market street in honor of Miss Cora Wrigley and Miss Hilda Johnson whose weddings will take place the coming fall. A delightful evening was spent and many useful and pretty gifts were received by the brides to be.

Sixty of the members of Dr. L. C.

Missing Children Are Sought by Police Here

Two Children of Thomas Craddock of Milton Are Wanted.

Chief of Police McHenry received a communication yesterday afternoon
asking him to locate the two children of Thomas Craddock who was instently killed in an accident at Milton yesterday. Mrs. Craddock, formerly of Clearfield, died here several years ago and since that time the children have been living with her family in Clearfield and vicinity. Anyone knowing of the Craddock children should get in touch with the police department immediately.

WALLACE COUPLE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Raymond Good and Miss Harriet L.

wedding trip.

CURWENSVILLE NEWS

Mrs. John W. Bromme and daughter Helen, leave today for their new home at Millersburg.

Mrs. Ira Mix, of Buffalo, came to Curwensville yesterday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtin Stiver.

Some autoist bumped into Miles Fullerton's car on the Grampian road Sunday evening and damaged it to a considerable extent.

Mrs. F. C. Whitehead of Elkton, Mr. and Mrs. James Stover and daughter Helen spent Tuesday at the home of A. N. Walker.

Allie Hummel conveyed his wife to the Clearfield hospital Tuesday afternoon where she will undergo treatment for inflammatory rheumatism.

W. H. Welsh and family, of Harrisburg, stopped in town long enough yesterday for refreshments are proceeding on their journey to Erie. They were making the trip by auto.

Joseph Carpenter, the new landlord of the Park hotel received official notice yesterday of his election as a member of the board of directors of the Pythian home at Butler.

At a meeting of Rescue Hose and Ladder company held on Monday evening, Joseph Mallon was elected to represent the company as delegate at the coming district fireman's convention on 23rd.

Misses Frankie Kelso and Marion Patterson, of Clearfield, spent the week end with Miss Lydia Walker and her house guest, Miss Grace Sutor, of Pittsburgh, at the summer home of A. N. Walker near Grampian.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Null, of Juniata, spent a part of yesterday in town. They were enroute for their home after a week's outing up at camp Bonarr. Mrs. Null is a sister of Postmaster and Harry Kettelberger of this place.

Mrs. Clair McCloskey, of Harrisburg, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Karstetter yesterday where she will visit the balance of the week. The family resided in Curwensville for several years, Mr. McCloskey being employed as bookkeeper in the office of E. A. Irvin.

The largest and finest lot of peaches that has ever come into this town was on exhibition at Lieb's drug store Tuesday. They came from the farm of Harry Lieb a brother, near Baltimore. Mr. Lieb resided in this town for several years, and was a partner with his brother Lewis in the drug business, and later served this borough as street commissioner for a year or two.

John Houpt and Ed. Gallaher had a run in with their autos Monday evening. Houpt was coming up the Main street from the B. R. & P. and Gallaher was coming down Locust street. Neither saw the other until it was too late to avoid a collision. The occupants of the machine were shaken up somewhat, but were not injured. The machines were damaged more or less, the Houpt car being damaged the worst.

John Blake, superintendent of the P. H. & L. tannery, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Edna, left by auto Wednesday morning for a ten days jaunt through New York state. From Curwensville they go to Catskills, thence to Rochester, spending several days, and then on to a point near Syracuse, the early home of Mr. Blake. At this point they will visit relatives for the balance of the vacation period.

William H. Sholow, whose death was announced in the Curwensville letter of Monday, had an enviable record as a soldier, a portion of which we are requested to publish for the perusal of his comrades in this section who knew him well. He was born near Tyrone on February 16th, 1843, and was raised in the vicinity of Ironville. His wife was Miss Mary E. Hill, who survives him. He enlisted April 20, 1861, at Harrisburg, for the three months' service, and was attached to Co. D, Third regiment. At the expiration of his short term he immediately reenlisted. August 23, 1861, for a three year period, and became a member of Co. I, III Penna. Infantry, the regiment being assigned to the Army of the Potomac, and he served under Captain David M. Jones in the following battles: Wilderness, Republic, Cedar Mountain, Rappahannock, Manassas, Torchburn, Gap, Bull Run, Fredericksburg, and Chancellorsville. Promoted corporal July 3, 1863; Sergeant on the 22nd of the same month. He was discharged on January 4, 1864, and remained the same day. Three months later he was commissioned Second Lieutenant and as such took part in the battles of Laurel Hill, Spotsylvania, and Bloody Angle, at which place he was wounded, but was at the front again on January 1, 1864, and was commissioned First Lieutenant, on the 22nd of that month. He received another wound on October 22nd, and was present with his regiment at Appomattox. He was made regimental adjutant April 8, 1865, and commissioned Captain April 11th, 1865, and was discharged at Washington after the grand review June 28th, 1865. At his death he was a member of John W. Geary Post, G. A. R. No. 90, of Philadelphia.

The first day of the Chautauqua opened under favorable circumstances for an increase of attendance each day. The lecture last evening by Dr. Poole was well received and enjoyed by the large number of people who heard it. Today is the second of the series and the program during the afternoon consisted of musical selections, readings and novelty numbers, also a community address by Prof. E. J. Ward, social expert, U. S. bureau of education. Tonight will be children's night and the kids will be entertained by music and character impersonations by the Regniers, also magic, mirth and mystery by Newton Prince of Magic.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or straggled appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

NEGRO BUSINESS MEN MEET.

Kansas City, Aug. 16.—Negro business men from every part of the country are in Kansas City to attend the annual convention of the National Negro Business Men's League, which will hold forth here during the remainder of the week. The league was organized in Boston some fifteen years ago by the late Booker T. Washington who remained at its head until his death. The object of the organization is to inform the world of the progress the negro is making in business and to stimulate local business enterprises and to encourage the organization of local business for the purpose of furthering commercial growth.

I AM TIRED OF BLUSHING FOR MY COUNTRY" SAYS MRS. G. W. WICKERSHAM

By Mrs. George W. Wickersham (Wife of former U. S. Attorney Gen.) New York, Aug. 16.—I am tired of blushing for my country.

Never did I think to hang my head as I have been forced to do during the last three years.

I am a member of the Women's Committee of the National Hughes Alliance purely on the score of patriotism. Personally I am an anti-suffragist, but all my energies and interests are concentrated on the coming election.

I long to be proud of my country. I need to be proud of it; proud of our spirit at home and proud of our reputation abroad; and I want to pass that pride on to my son and my grandsons.

We must stand before the world as a nation composed in strength but absolutely ready at every point to back up its ideals when action is necessary.

I think the real issue of this campaign is patriotism and I think a great many of us of varying political convictions are going to work together for the welfare of the country.

I am a firm believer in clearly defined political parties, but there are times and conditions in the political history of a country like ours when we must all unite on the big issues and agree to differ about the lesser.

As an anti-suffragist I am not concerned with political organization as such, but as a citizen of this country I am deeply concerned for its welfare.

Do I believe preparedness must be made an issue? Yes, indeed. And I want every man and woman in this country to be made to feel a sense of responsibility about serving it in some way. I want people to learn that Preparedness cannot be settled entirely by congress; that it is an individual matter and that we must take it up individually to make it national.

PRESIDENT TO AVOID A POLITICAL ATMOSPHERE TO NAME TARIFF COMMISSION

Washington, August 16.—(By United Press)—In naming the forthcoming tariff commission the President, it is known today, is determined to get entirely out of a political atmosphere. The chances of any aspirant who is recommended by a politician will go glimmering.

President Wilson is said to have a constitutional aversion to appointing a man to a job when the man is recommended by a politician. The reason is that almost any senator or congressman will recommend a man if he comes from his district.

Frequently the candidate may be personally unknown to the solon. He comes in for the regular form OK, many times a rubberstamp affair that never comes to the congressman's attention at all.

While the President was wrestling with the farm loan board personnel he received several hundred recommendations. One day a group of congressmen came to the White House to recommend a certain man. Not one of them knew the man's full name or anything about him. One of the group desired him and the rest were helping boost.

A senator was asked following a conference with the President if he at any time added to the names on the prospective list of the farm board experts.

"Why, yes," the senator replied, "I believe I did recommend someone. It was several days ago and I really paid no attention to it. I don't even remember the man's name, but he was from my district, I'm sure."

Examples of this are found in the filling of supreme court and cabinet vacancies, too. A hundred lawyers were recommended by political advisors for the place now occupied by Justice Brandeis.

FORMER HARVARD STUDENT IN THE TOILS OF THE LAW

Boston, Mass., Aug. 16.—Charles W. Simms, Jr., a former Harvard student, was arraigned in the Newton police court today for a preliminary hearing on a charge of theft. The young man is accused of having stolen diamonds and jewelry valued at more than $1,200 from the home of William E. Litchfield in Newton. Simms was a friend of Mr. Litchfield's daughter and had been a frequent caller at the home. He is alleged to have made a complete confession and to have aided in the recovering the stolen jewelry from pawnshops. In view of these facts friends of the young man have joined in an effort to secure his release in his case.

SECOND MEETING AT WINDSOR

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 16.—More than 500 horses, representing the pack of those that are following the Canadian and American circuits this summer, are quartered at the fair grounds track in readiness for the opening afternoon of the Windsor Jockey Club's final meeting for 1916. There are seven events on the program for the opening day, with the Ferry Company's handicap for one mile with $3,000 added, as the chief feature.

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetens and freshens the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

ONE YEAR AGO IN THE WAR.

August 16, 1915—Germans captured outlying forts of Kovno and Novo Georgievsk; German submarine shelled three towns on English coast along Irish Sea; Petrograd declared Russians had again driven back Germans in Courland; Paris reported violent artillery actions at many points and successful French mining operations.

SPEAKING OF THE ROBINS.

Brooklyn entered the National league in 1890 and brought home the pennant the first year.

After winning the pennant in the year of its National league debut, Brooklyn repeated the trick in 1899 and 1900.

Only once during the 26 years that Brooklyn has been in the National league has the team finished in the cellar.

Three veteran pitchers, Marquard, Combs and Cheney, have been doing excellent work for Brooklyn after all three had been released by other teams.

George Carshaw, who works around the second cushion has proven a sensation, came to Brooklyn in 1912 from the Oakland team of the Pacific Coast league.

McCarty and Daubert of the Brooklyn team are included among the ten best players in the National league. McCarty and Daubert are also among the first half-dozen batsmen.

Zack Wheat is the oldest player on the Brooklyn team in point of years. Wheat joined the team in August, 1909. Jake Daubert is the next oldest, having joined the team in the spring of 1910.

Robert I. Johnson, the Robins' third baseman, is the former first baseman of the Baltimore Orioles, who became great baseball manager.

The other two were McGraw of the Giants and Jennings of the Detroit Tigers.

Ed. Pfeffer, the Robins' star pitcher and leading heater of the National league, is 27 years old and native of Champaign, Ill. He won 23 games and lost 12 in 1914, the year in which he joined the Robins. Last year his count stood 19 won and 14 lost.

One of the most noticeable features of Brooklyn's dash to the front has been the fast work displayed by the many veteran pastimers now on the team. Players who have been wearing the big league spangles for years, including Mowrey, Meyers, Olson, Combs, Marquard and Cheney, are now going like two-year-olds.

First known as the Trolley Dodgers—the nickname of the Brooklyn team was changed to the Superbas when Ned Hanlon became pilot. The name owed its origin to "Hanlon's superbas," at that time a popular spectacular production on the stage.

"Robins" the present nickname of the team is a given in honor of Manager Wilbert Robinson.

During the last two games of the present season put the Robins in the lead, where they remained until April 25, and then started to climb in earnest. April 29 found the team in second place and on May 1 they grabbed the top rung of the pennant ladder. They lost the lead the next day, but regained it one day later and have been burning up the league since.

WOMEN ROOKIES EXERCISE BEFORE BREAKFAST

Lake Geneva, Wis., Aug. 16.—(By United Press)—Clad in khaki skirts, olive drab flannel waists, regulation army hats and tan shoes, 150 women rookies here today are making themselves ready "for any national emergency."

The women are attending National Service school No. 3 of the Woman's section of the navy league. They started the day by undergoing a course in military calisthenics. They will do it before breakfast every day for two weeks.

The women rookies were ready for the muscle making exercise at 6.40. Breakfast is served at 7.30, police call at 8 o'clock, inspection at 8.30. Drills, classes, lectures and entertainment take up the remainder of the day. Taps is sounded at 9.30 p. m. Sundays the women arise half an hour later than on week days. Church at 3 p. m. is extra on Sundays.

The courses include home care of the sick, knitting and plain sewing, signal work, first aid, dress for the sick, surgical dressings, plain and wireless telegraphy, automobile and ambulance driving.

"The women are in earnest, too," said Mrs. Vylla Poe Wilson, of Washington, who is directing the course.

Mrs. Wilson and her sister, Miss Elizabeth C. Poe, with the first to think of a National Service school for women. The first was held at Chevy Chase, near Washington, in May and was such a success that San Francisco demanded one in June. A fourth school will be held in Rhode Island some time in September.

Russian Offensive Completely Halted At Stoched River

"Worst of Drive is Over" Declared High German Officer on Eastern Front
Teuton Lines Reorganized

SCOUTS REPORT THE RUSSIANS MASSING

By Carl W. Ackerman

(United Press Staff Correspondent) Headquarters of Field Marshall of Von Hindenburg's army.—"The worst of the Russian offensive is over," one of the highest commanding officers on the eastern front told the United Press today, after a tour of inspection of the Austrian lines. Completely halted at the Stoched river in their efforts to reach Kovel, the Russians, undaunted by this failure, have shifted their attack southward, always striking against the Austrians.

"The temporary successes of the Russians in the southeast is desperate strategy," said a German officer, "because the faster they advance with their left wing in the southeast, the more that weakens their right wing along the Stoched." It is admitted here that the Russians caught the Austrians by surprise at the beginning of the offensive. Aeroplanes reported that the Russians were massing behind the Russian front but no one believed that they were as strong as they have been discovered to be. The Russians kept the Austrians guessing for several weeks, but now the whole Austro-German front is reorganized and the earlier Russian advances are being overcome.

The fall of Stanislaw and Gowitz was admittedly unpleasant, but viewed strategically, has a different meaning according to German military men. These reverses are completely outweighed by the Russians failure to reach Kovel and Lemberg. The Germans marvel that they did not succeed in view of the gigantic English and French blows, but at the critical moment the German troops arrived and stiffened the lines west of Kovel. "We bivouacked last night near the front where the Russians on August 8th attempted their great offensive. The night scene at the front was entrancing. The sky was lit with countless great fires, about which the companies were encamped within a few hundred yards of the Russian positions. Bands played and soldiers sang. Not a cannon was fired. The Russians occasionally shot light cartridges to illuminate the field between the trenches and prevent a surprise attack. Far off in the distance an Austrian battery was pounding a Russian railroad." The new armies on this front are composed of Poles, Germans, Austro-Hungarians, and the officers and leaders show a new spirit of comradeship, in their endeavor to strengthen the central powers.

Later advices from Petrograd state that despite stubborn enemy resistance the Russians advanced their lines on a 75 mile front, extending from the Carpathians to a point southwest of Tanopol in yesterday's fighting, occupying two villages. Another Russian force crossed the Zlota Lipa river, and other Russian troops advanced their lines further in the direction of Halitz.

General Lull on the Front. Official statements from the allied capitals today indicate that there is a general lull along the line of the major offensive, instead of the usual early statements and territorial gains and losses. The Russian war office has given out the figures of the result of the campaign from June 4th to August 13th. This shows Austro-German prisoners taken 358,000, cannon 405, machine guns 1225 and most other booty.

Minor engagements between British and German forces in the Pozieres region, and repulsing of German attacks in the west Verdun front, were reported. The night was very quiet. The Italians captured Austrian trenches south of Gowitz, and at San Marco 350 prisoners were taken, it was officially announced.

Propose That Railroads Give 8-Hour Day a Trial Period
-Wilson's Proposal Submitted This P. M.

OVERTIME AT PRESENT RATE

New York, August 16.—Six hundred representatives of the trainmen threatening to strike for the demands of an 8 hour day and time and a half for over-time, will go to Washington this afternoon to meet President Wilson. W. S. Carter President of the Brotherhood of Firemen, who came to New York from Washington last night to submit the President's proposal to the employees, made this announcement today, following a short conference with some of the leaders.

The proposal submitted by Carter was that the railroads would adopt the 8 hour rule for a trial period, but continue the present schedule of pro rata pay for over time. The 600 representatives of the 400,000 employees and the district chairmen of the brotherhoods have in their hands the final decision of acceptance or rejection of the proposals looking to the averting of a strike. Immediately after announcing that the chairmen would go to Washington, Carter went into conference with them at Webster Hall.

The 600 representatives of the trainmen formally voted in favor of going to Washington to confer with the President. No other action was taken.

DETROIT—POLITICAL BATTLE-GROUND OF THE NATION

Detroit, Aug. 16.—(By United Press) —Detroit—political battle-ground of the nation! Such it is today. For the first time in its history the issues of a great campaign are being fought out by the leaders in this city of the middle west.

Roosevelt started the tide of battle Detroitward when he came here to preach preparedness.

President Wilson selected the City of the Straights for his most important address of the pre-campaign period.

Charles Evans Hughes launched his campaign for the Presidency here August 7.

Ash Michigan politicians why and the answer almost invariably is: "Ford."

Roosevelt came to fight the anti-militaristic movement that crystallized following Henry Ford's unexpected appearance in the results of the presidential primaries.

Wilson picked Detroit as the place for his address on Mexican relations. Politicians believe he picked Detroit because he recognized it as a representative industrial center.

Then came Hughes, selecting Detroit as the scene of his first offensive move in the actual campaign. The motive of the Republican nominee in picking the automobile city was practical politics. Michigan was the first state in the union to declare definitely for the ex-justice.

A battle royal for Michigan's immense Progressive vote also is indicated by the actions of the two nominees. Normally Michigan is Republican by 50,000 but four years ago Progressives received the popular verdict, polling more than 213,000 votes, or nearly 39 per cent of the total.

The fight for control of this Progressive element promises to develop into one of the feature rounds of the campaign.

EUROPEAN WAR CAUSE OF KILLING AND SUICIDE

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 16.—(By United Press)—Prejudices arising from the European war were responsible for a double killing and suicide here this afternoon, when Peter Alpakis, of Woodlawn, shot James Astolou, 22, and Mrs. Aemilia Fremiadis, 19, and then committed suicide. The two men were cousins. Alpakis, whose sympathies were with the allies, killed Astolou and the young man to prevent them from wedding. Mrs. Fremiadis was the widow of a Turkish soldier, who was killed in the war.

Pomona Grange Meeting at Faudice Hall, Luthersburg, Well Attended

After a short business session, W. P. Wingert opened the question of Legumes adapted to Clearfield county. Mr. Wingert was followed by A. T. Kearney, County Farm Agent, G. B. Wachob and others who recommended alfalfa and other clovers. The value of the County Farm Bureau was discussed by T. L. Day, A. T. Kearney and others.

A bountiful feast was partaken of by all present at the noon hour. The Garnger women are surely some cooks.

Afternoon

A part of the afternoon session was an open meeting in which the question of the "Educational Value of the County Fair" was discussed by S. G. Koontz, George Wingert, E. C. Harmon, S. E. Kriner, James Rowles, lecturer; F. Burton Lee, master, and others. T. L. Wall gave an outline of the preparation already made for the fair at Clearfield in order that the members of the Grange and others present might have some idea of a probable value in an educational and recreational way. Mistakes may be made in the organization, management or premium list items, but an earnest effort will be made to rectify any errors in this year's work, next year.

In the premium list a few items are in by mistake (on account of misprints of lists of other fairs) that should have been left out. Also, carpets and quilts as follows were omitted in making up the list:

Five yards or more rug, carpet, wool chain, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; 5 yards or more rug, carpet, cotton chain, first prize $1.00; second prize 75 cents; Patchwork quilts, silk or satin, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; Patchwork quilts, wool, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents. Quilted, any design, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; Silk, any design, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents. 8-4 or Applique work, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; Log Cabin, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; Crazy Delaine, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; Fancy Delaine, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; Irish Chain, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; Double Irish Chain, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents; Knitted Bedspread, first prize $1.00; second prize 50 cents.

An allowance to help defray expenses of bringing stock has been made as follows: Horses, 10 to 15 miles, $1.50 each; over 15 miles, $2.00 each. Cows one half horse rate. Cattle, 1 to 5 miles, $1.00 each; 5 to 10 miles, $1.50 each; 10 to 15 miles, $2.00 each; over 15 miles, $3.00 each. Sheep one half of cattle rate. Sheep within ten miles, 25 cents each; over 10 miles, 50 cents each. Hogs same rate as sheep and pigs 10 cents each. On chickens, return charges will be allowed on exhibition coops. Entries of live stock to secure allowance, must have the number of miles marked on entry blanks.

Reading by Elmina Noyes. In the next discussion the value of women on the School Board was generally admitted, but their presence could not be a cure for all school ills.

C. A. Read gave an excellent talk on the teacher as a school factor and knew when to quit.

G. B. Wachob discussed the directors' responsibilities from a six years' store of experience on the School Board.

E. H. Harmon told how the parent could be a help or a hindrance to school work.

Evening Session. The new Federal Farm Loan Law was discussed by Peter Gearhart.

Rev. G. W. Hatch spoke on National Prohibition. "Inside of Ten Years the Saloon Will Go." Others spoke in the same vein.

The male quartet from Penn Grange rendered some excellent selections.

The Home, the Church and the School—the three factors in child training, were discussed respectively by Mrs. Hugh Kling, who said that a child should be trained at home to be truthful and honest, and related some personal experiences of her childhood days to illustrate her remarks. Rev. Hatch said that a child is never too young to be taken to church. Little ones at the service never annoy him. Henry Wiegand said the school can only give a part of a child's training. The fifth degree of the Order was conferred on a class of ten.

The exercises were interspersed with music, the attendance was very good and a pleasant and profitable meeting is reported.

New British Loan Of 250 Million Announced

Morgan and Company Make Public Details of New Loan

New York, Aug. 16.—(By United Press)—Details of the new British loan were announced by the J. P. Morgan Company. HIBERNIAN ATTEND MASS

DESPITE RAIN, ADDRESS

Pottsville, Pa., Aug. 16.—(By United Press)—The Ancient Order of Hibernians in a large congregation attended High Mass at the St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock this morning. Rev. McDerment of Pottsville presided and gave the Mass. Rev. Deane of Pottsville acted as co-officiant. The Hibernian Chapter of Clearfield, Pa., was also present.

Robert Barnett returned home today after spending some time at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Chapman, at Madera.

Friendship Cemented Among Towns of Co. By The Business Men

A Most Cordial Reception Awaits The Tourists at Every Stop And The Accommodations Are Fine

One hundred business men of Clearfield, not one more, not one less, took in the first Get Acquainted Tour of the Chamber of Commerce for this year. The greatest weather that ever smiled on humanity was with the tourists and the trip was made without mishap or cross-cross of any kind. So far as we have been able to find out there was not even a puncture even though there were twenty two autos in line. They got away about 7:45 a. m. and maintained the pre-arranged schedule all day arriving at Snow Shoe in time for the noon day meal that had been ordered in advance.

The tourists were greeted at Snowville by a nice crowd which put extra life into the crowd and indicated that they were going to have a great day. At this point we might say that the band played at every stop and this feature was very much enjoyed by the tourists as well as those they were visiting.

Leontes Mills, the new farming and mining center, provided a good crowd and a great many people came up from the mines to look over the tourists and greet them.

The tourists had the good fortune to reach Frenchville just as the people were coming from a church service at the Catholic church. This insured a good crowd but these people have been one anyhow as Frenchville always had a warm spot for Clearfield and the feeling is fully reciprocated.

Fine Glen and Clarence each gave a cordial welcome to the visitors and the tourists were surprised at the excellent appearance of these little towns.

Snow Shoe was reached on time and can well be said to be the objective point of the tourists as they were all hungry and word was passed that an order denoting "eats" was permitting the atmosphere round about the town. Their appetites could not have been too large for the landlady at Snow Shoe proved themselves equal to the occasion and had a feast of food prepared for the tourists. The very thing to enter a man's heart is through his stomach so Snow Shoe will ever be held dear in the hearts of the one hundred odd men who ate there yesterday. This story would not be complete without giving credit to the two genial landlady, Lawrence Redding and Samuel Hopburn, who gave them such a dinner.

A matter of no little comment all along the trip was the scenery of the country passed through. Wonderful and beautiful farming lands, mineral laden mountains and forest wealth greeted the tourists in every turn. Those who had not been over the route before were amazed at the wonders of their own native country.

The tourists stopped at Moslemont and there the Fifth Regiment band made all merry with a lively lullaby and after greeting the principal citizens of the village they proceeded to Grass Flat where graciously the whole town was out to do them honor. Grass Flat showed her friendship in a practical way by turning out in a body to meet her neighbors and her friends. Grass Flat is another community where a Clearfielder can be where he is hungry for they sure will forget him there.

A citizen and merchant of Kylerstown had a side batch of delicious apples ready for the tourists and some of them thought a bunch of the goods that they failed to get at well acquainted as they should have been and had a few more apples which they were willing to give.

More than twenty men gave their names to the Chamber of Commerce and will be in the list of the Chamber of Commerce. Every body was introduced to every body and many acquaintances were made that will ripen as time goes on and the two towns get more firmly cemented together in the ties of friendship.

At Osceola Mills the streets were literally crowded. The old belief that the tour is for the purpose of stealing trade from the small town merchants has had the bottom knocked out of it and now all are pulling together for the common good and community welfare. The evening meal was taken here and after the men had all gathered together each declared he had been fortunate in being sent to the hotel where he got his supper. This was the feeling of all and it wound up with the making of several bets about it. These called as judges could not decide where they had received the best meal. Osceola landlady are some feeders.

Blue Ball, Wallacetown and Bigler all greeted the tourists with good crowds of their best citizenship though the evening was getting late and the band could hardly see to play their instruments.

Woodland, that dear little old town of early days and modern ideas, contributed a fitting climax and a delightful ending to the biggest day ever seen by the participants in the tour. Her ladies banded together in the Civic club invited the tourists to stop at Mineral Springs park and partake of a sandwich and coffee lunch and of course they accepted. The invitation came the day before the tour but not many knew of it so the stop at Mineral Springs, that beautiful little spot of nature, was a pleasant surprise indeed. Tables were covered with linens and the linens were obscured from view by sandwiches and cups of hot coffee. All was fine but after the hot dusty drive of the day the coffee was certainly enjoyed by all. The tourists will long remember the day and the ladies of Woodland for their thoughtfulness.

Today the tourists are resting, while doing their work, but to a man they are going tomorrow and many will join them who could not go yesterday.

The Get Acquainted Tour is to friendship what a good old fashioned Methodist experience meeting is to religion.

MR. FIELDING'S CONDITION REMAINS UNCHANGED TODAY

Missing Children Are Sought by Police Here

Two Children of Thomas Craddock of Milton Are Wanted.

Chief of Police McHenry received communication yesterday afternoon asking him to locate the two children of Thomas Craddock who was instantaneously killed in an accident at Milton yesterday. Mrs. Craddock, formerly of Clearfield, died here several years ago and since that time the children have been living with her family in Clearfield and vicinity. Anyone knowing the Craddock children should get in touch with the police department immediately.

WALLACETOWN COUPLE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Raymond Good and Miss Harriet L. Bode of Wallacetown were quietly married at the J. E. Parsonage of Woodland last Saturday by Rev. W. S. Bode. The young couple will make their home in Wallacetown after a short wedding trip.

Amateur Athletic Club To Stage Six Bouts

Will be Exhibited in Third Ward Hose House—Money for Firemen

A special attraction of the first day of the Firemen's Convention to be held here on August 23-24 will be the staging of six big bouts of wrestling and boxing by the Amateur Athletic club of Clearfield under the auspices of the Third Ward Hose Company. The bouts will be staged in the Third Ward Hose house on the evening of August 23 at 8:30 o'clock, admission of which will be fifty cents. The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the firemen.

This is the first time in several years that amateur wrestling and boxing matches have been presented by Clearfield boys and it is expected that all local sportsmen will be there to witness the bouts. There will be three bouts of wrestling and three of boxing by local boys. The Amateur Athletic club has a gymnasium in the Edwards and David Billard Parlor where the members have been practicing for this exhibition for several months. As the money goes to the firemen it is hoped a large crowd will be present.

ROBBERS KILL MERCHANT WHEN HE DISCOVERS THEM

Greenville, Pa., Aug. 16.—(By United Press)—J. A. Silverson, proprietor of a general store at Amasa, three miles east of this place was shot and almost instantly killed in his store early today by two men whom he caught robbing the place. He lived only long enough to tell of the attack. He was awakened about one o'clock by a noise down in the store, and finding a revolver he crept silently down the stairs. On firing, the bullet lodged in a counter, and he instantly became a target for the burglars. Several shots entered his body, and shortly after others in the household reached him he died.

CURWENSVILLE NEWS

Mrs. John W. Bromme and daughter Helen, leave today for their new home at Millersburg.

Mrs. Ira Mix, of Buffalo, came to Curwensville yesterday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtin Stiver.

Some autoist bumped into Miles Fullerton's car on the Grampian road Sunday evening and damaged it to a considerable extent.

Mrs. F. C. Whitehead of Elkton, Mr. and Mrs. James Stover and daughter Helen spent Tuesday at the home of A. N. Walker.

Allie Hummel conveyed his wife to the Clearfield hospital Tuesday afternoon where she will undergo treatment for inflammatory rheumatism.

W. H. Welsh and family, of Harrisburg, stopped in town long enough yesterday for refreshments are proceeding on their journey to Erie. They were making the trip by auto.

Joseph Carpenter, the new landlord of the Park hotel received official notice yesterday of his election as a member of the board of directors of the Pythian home at Butler.

At a meeting of Rescue Hose and Ladder company held on Monday evening, Joseph Mallon was elected to represent the company as delegate at the coming district fireman's convention on 23rd.

Misses Frankie Kelso and Marion Patterson, of Clearfield, spent the week end with Miss Lydia Walker and her house guest, Miss Grace Sutor, of Pittsburgh, at the summer home of A. N. Walker near Grampian.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Null, of Juniata, spent a part of yesterday in town. They were enroute for their home after a week's outing up at camp Bonarr. Mrs. Null is a sister of Postmaster and Harry Kettelberger of this place.

Mrs. Clair McCloskey, of Harrisburg, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Karstetter yesterday where she will visit the balance of the week. The family resided in Curwensville for several years, Mr. McCloskey being employed as bookkeeper in the office of E. A. Irvin.

The largest and finest lot of peaches that has ever come into this town was on exhibition at Lieb's drug store Tuesday. They came from the farm of Harry Lieb a brother, near Baltimore. Mr. Lieb resided in this town for several years, and was a partner with his brother Lewis in the drug business, and later served this borough as street commissioner for a year or two.

John Houpt and Ed. Gallaher had a run in with their autos Monday evening. Houpt was coming up the Main street from the B. R. & P. and Gallaher was coming down Locust street. Neither saw the other until it was too late to avoid a collision. The occupants of the machine were shaken up somewhat, but were not injured. The machines were damaged more or less, the Houpt car being damaged the worst.

John Blake, superintendent of the P. H. & L. tannery, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Edna, left by auto Wednesday morning for a ten days jaunt through New York state. From Curwensville they go to Catskills, thence to Rochester, spending several days, and then on to a point near Syracuse, the early home of Mr. Blake. At this point they will visit relatives for the balance of the vacation period.

William H. Sholow, whose death was announced in the Curwensville letter of Monday, had an enviable record as a soldier, a portion of which we are requested to publish for the perusal of his comrades in this section who knew him well. He was born near Tyrone on February 16th, 1843, and was raised in the vicinity of Ironville. His wife was Miss Mary E. Hill, who survives him. He enlisted April 20, 1861, at Harrisburg, for the three months' service, and was attached to Co. D, Third regiment. At the expiration of his short term he immediately reenlisted. August 23, 1861, for a three year period, and became a member of Co. I, III Penna. Infantry, the regiment being assigned to the Army of the Potomac, and he served under Captain David M. Jones in the following battles: Wilderness, Republic, Cedar Mountain, Rappahannock, Manassas, Torchburn, Gap, Bull Run, Fredericksburg, and Chancellorsville. Promoted corporal July 3, 1863; Sergeant on the 22nd of the same month. He was discharged on January 4, 1864, and remained the same day. Three months later he was commissioned Second Lieutenant and as such took part in the battles of Laurel Hill, Spotsylvania, and Bloody Angle, at which place he was wounded, but was at the front again on January 1, 1864, and was commissioned First Lieutenant, on the 22nd of that month. He received another wound on October 22nd, and was present with his regiment at Appomattox. He was made regimental adjutant April 8, 1865, and commissioned Captain April 11th, 1865, and was discharged at Washington after the grand review June 28th, 1865. At his death he was a member of John W. Geary Post, G. A. R. No. 90, of Philadelphia.

The first day of the Chautauqua opened under favorable circumstances for an increase of attendance each day. The lecture last evening by Dr. Poole was well received and enjoyed by the large number of people who heard it. Today is the second of the series and the program during the afternoon consisted of musical selections, readings and novelty numbers, also a community address by Prof. E. J. Ward, social expert, U. S. bureau of education. Tonight will be children's night and the kids will be entertained by music and character impersonations by the Regniers, also magic, mirth and mystery by Newton Prince of Magic.

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or straggled appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

NEGRO BUSINESS MEN MEET.

Kansas City, Aug. 16.—Negro business men from every part of the country are in Kansas City to attend the annual convention of the National Negro Business Men's League, which will hold forth here during the remainder of the week. The league was organized in Boston some fifteen years ago by the late Booker T. Washington who remained at its head until his death. The object of the organization is to inform the world of the progress the negro is making in business and to stimulate local business enterprises and to encourage the organization of local business for the purpose of furthering commercial growth.

I AM TIRED OF BLUSHING FOR MY COUNTRY" SAYS MRS. G. W. WICKERSHAM

By Mrs. George W. Wickersham (Wife of former U. S. Attorney Gen.) New York, Aug. 16.—I am tired of blushing for my country.

Never did I think to hang my head as I have been forced to do during the last three years.

I am a member of the Women's Committee of the National Hughes Alliance purely on the score of patriotism. Personally I am an anti-suffragist, but all my energies and interests are concentrated on the coming election.

I long to be proud of my country. I need to be proud of it; proud of our spirit at home and proud of our reputation abroad; and I want to pass that pride on to my son and my grandsons.

We must stand before the world as a nation composed in strength but absolutely ready at every point to back up its ideals when action is necessary.

I think the real issue of this campaign is patriotism and I think a great many of us of varying political convictions are going to work together for the welfare of the country.

I am a firm believer in clearly defined political parties, but there are times and conditions in the political history of a country like ours when we must all unite on the big issues and agree to differ about the lesser.

As an anti-suffragist I am not concerned with political organization as such, but as a citizen of this country I am deeply concerned for its welfare.

Do I believe preparedness must be made an issue? Yes, indeed. And I want every man and woman in this country to be made to feel a sense of responsibility about serving it in some way. I want people to learn that Preparedness cannot be settled entirely by congress; that it is an individual matter and that we must take it up individually to make it national.

PRESIDENT TO AVOID A POLITICAL ATMOSPHERE TO NAME TARIFF COMMISSION

Washington, August 16.—(By United Press)—In naming the forthcoming Tariff commission the President, it is known today, is determined to get entirely out of a political atmosphere. The chances of any aspirant who is recommended by a politician will go glimmering.

President Wilson is said to have a constitutional aversion to appointing a man to a job when the man is recommended by a politician. The reason is that almost any senator or congressman will recommend a man if he comes from his district.

Frequently the candidate may be personally unknown to the solon. He comes in for the regular form OK, many times a rubberstamp affair that never comes to the congressman's attention at all.

While the President was wrestling with the farm loan board personnel he received several hundred recommendations. One day a group of congressmen came to the White House to recommend a certain man. Not one of them knew the man's full name or anything about him. One of the group desired him and the rest were helping boost.

A senator was asked following a conference with the President if he at any time added to the names on the prospective list of the farm board experts.

"Why, yes," the senator replied, "I believe I did recommend someone. It was several days ago and I really paid no attention to it. I don't even remember the man's name, but he was from my district, I'm sure."

Examples of this are found in the filling of supreme court and cabinet vacancies, too. A hundred lawyers were recommended by political advisors for the place now occupied by Justice Brandeis.

FORMER HARVARD STUDENT IN THE TOILS OF THE LAW

Boston, Mass., Aug. 16.—Charles W. Simms, Jr., a former Harvard student, was arraigned in the Newton police court today for a preliminary hearing on a charge of theft. The young man is accused of having stolen diamonds and jewelry valued at more than $1,200 from the home of William E. Litchfield in Newton. Simms was a friend of Mr. Litchfield's daughter and had been a frequent caller at the home. He is alleged to have made a complete confession and to have aided in the recovering the stolen jewelry from pawnshops. In view of these facts friends of the young man have joined in an effort to secure his release in his case.

SECOND MEETING AT WINDSOR

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 16.—More than 500 horses, representing the pack of those that are following the Canadian and American circuits this summer, are quartered at the fair grounds track in readiness for the opening afternoon of the Windsor Jockey Club's final meeting for 1916. There are seven events on the program for the opening day, with the Ferry Company's handicap for one mile with $3,000 added, as the chief feature.

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetens and freshens the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

ONE YEAR AGO IN THE WAR.

August 16, 1915—Germans captured outlying forts of Kovno and Novo Georgievsk; German submarine shelled three towns on English coast along Irish Sea; Petrograd declared Russians had again driven back Germans in Courland; Paris reported violent artillery actions at many points and successful French mining operations.

SPEAKING OF THE ROBINS.

Brooklyn entered the National league in 1890 and brought home the pennant the first year.

After winning the pennant in the year of its National league debut, Brooklyn repeated the trick in 1899 and 1900.

Only once during the 26 years that Brooklyn has been in the National league has the team finished in the cellar.

Three veteran pitchers, Marquard, Combs and Cheney, have been doing excellent work for Brooklyn after all three had been released by other teams.

George Carshaw, who works around the second cushion has proven a sensation, came to Brooklyn in 1912 from the Oakland team of the Pacific Coast league.

McCarty and Daubert of the Brooklyn team are included among the ten best players in the National league.

McCarty and Daubert are the best first half dozen in the league.

What is the oldest player on the Brooklyn team in point of years? What is the best player in the league in 1916? Jake Daubert is the best.

The other two were McGraw of the Giants and Jennings of the Detroit Tigers.

Ed. Pfeffer, the Robins' star pitcher and leading heater of the National league, is 27 years old and native of Champaign, Ill. He won 23 games and lost 12 in 1914, the year in which he joined the Robins. Last year his count stood 19 won and 14 lost.

One of the most noticeable features of Brooklyn's dash to the front has been the fast work displayed by the many veteran pastimers now on the team. Players who have been wearing the big league spangles for years, including Mowrey, Meyers, Olson, Combs, Marquard and Cheney, are now going like two-year-olds.

First known as the Trolley Dodgers—the nickname of the Brooklyn team was changed to the Superbas when Ned Hanlon became pilot. The name owed its origin to "Hanlon's superbas," at that time a popular spectacular production on the stage.

"Robins" the present nickname of the team is a given in honor of Manager Walter Robinson.

During the last two games of the present season put the Robins in the cellar, where they remained until April 25, and then started to climb in earnest. April 29 found the team in second place and on May 1 they grabbed the top rung of the pennant ladder. They lost the lead the next day, but regained it one day later and have been burning up the league since.

WOMEN ROOKIES EXERCISE BEFORE BREAKFAST

Lake Geneva, Wis., Aug. 16.—(By United Press)—Clad in khaki skirts, olive drab flannel waists, regulation army hats and tan shoes, 150 women rookies here today are making themselves ready "for any national emergency."

The women are attending National Service school No. 3 of the Woman's section of the navy league. They started the day by undergoing a course in military calisthenics. They will do it before breakfast every day for two weeks.

The women rookies were ready for the muscle making exercise at 6.40. Breakfast is served at 7.30, police call at 8 o'clock, inspection at 8.30. Drills, classes, lectures and entertainment take up the remainder of the day. Taps is sounded at 9.30 p. m. Sundays the women arise half an hour later than on week days. Church at 3 p. m. is extra on Sundays.

The courses include home care of the sick, knitting and plain sewing, signal work, first aid, dress for the sick, surgical dressings, plain and wireless telegraphy, automobile and ambulance driving.

"The women are in earnest, too," said Mrs. Vylla Poe Wilson, of Washington, who is directing the course.

Mrs. Wilson and her sister, Miss Elizabeth C. Poe, with the first to think of a National Service school for women. The first was held at Chevy Chase, near Washington, in May and was such a success that San Francisco demanded one in June. A fourth school will be held in Rhode Island some time in September.
